

Woodwind Instrument Insurance

For some, music is magic. A true language of the soul that transcends the lines that divide us, uniting the planet together through a common bond. For you, music is your passion, it's what drives you, fuels your creative energy, and even helps provide for you. When the unexpected in life occurs, ensure your passion is protected with woodwind instrument insurance from Clarion Associates.

We're a third-generation family-owned and operated business with over 45 years of helping musicians and the music industry protect their investments. We offer comprehensive coverage at competitive rates and can custom-tailor a plan to help meet your specific needs.

Why You Need It

Life happens, and when it does, it helps to have the security of knowing your assets are properly protected. Woodwind instrument insurance from Clarion Associates provides peace of mind should anything happen, freeing you from the stress of figuring out how to repair or replace your investment at the last minute. Our trusted agents are on standby to help resolve your claim and get you back to your passion as quickly as possible. Our coverage also extends to any borrowed or rented instruments as well, ensuring musicians can continue working without delay should the unexpected occur.

For recording artists, Clarion also offers additional recording equipment coverage for your plan. Whether at home or the studio, our coverage will help protect your equipment if it's lost, damaged, or stolen. Our coverage is so extensive you can even insure your cases and accessories with us as well!

Contact Us Today!

Our coverage and team are here to help protect what matters most to you in life. Whether you're an aspiring artist, seasoned musician, or even a collector of musical instruments, our tailored policies offer you the security and peace of mind you need and deserve. Contact a trusted adviser today for a consultation to discuss your insurance needs and help craft a plan that's right for you.