Is Your Animal Bailee Policy Providing Enough Protection?

AVMA PLIT®
Protecting you through it all

Your Animal Bailee policy responds to the accidental injury or loss of patients that your practice boards or transports. However, an Animal Bailee policy can only provide protection up to its limits.

What is a Policy Limit?

A limit is the maximum amount of money that an insurance policy will pay for an individual bailee claim or loss.

Low Limit Bailee Policy Results in $3,000 Loss

A Corgi boarding at Dr. A's practice escaped and was never found. The owners filed a lawsuit against Dr. A's practice demanding $5,000 for their canceled vacation, flight change fees, cost of printing "lost dog" posters, the purchase of a new dog, and more.

Dr. A had secured Plan 1 Animal Bailee Insurance through the PLIT Program with a $2,000 per incident limit. The policy was only able to pay the $2,000 limit, and Dr. A had to pay the remaining $3,000 out of pocket. With a higher limit bailee policy, the loss would have been covered in full.
