

Tablemates

As the season of turning inward draws ever closer, our thoughts turn to hanging out at home.

Cooler temperatures are on their way and with them the desire not to leave the house. Really, who needs to queue for a table at a café when you can set yours for everyday gatherings with loved ones that give you a little more time to stay still? You won't miss the waitstaff when you can serve yourself from a selection of beautiful pieces you've chosen with simple pleasures in mind: soulful ceramics filled with fruit, timber boards laden with bread, a grooved dipper dripping with golden honey. Layer your setting with linen napkins and coasters that warmly invite everyone to make themselves at home. cittadesign.com

TAKE A SEAT This welcoming composition features items from Città's Still Life collection, which celebrates the calming beauty to be found in oft-used objects. The colour palette whets your appetite in milky white, clotted cream and warm toast and biscuit tones, and the materials appreciate nature's best. Key pieces pictured include a Radial dining table and chairs, Serena and Milu bowls, Talo bowls and plates, Finch bowls and mugs, Piccadilly tumblers, a Città x Hayley Bridgford vessel, Hand Forged cutlery, Round chopping blocks, and Gingham and Pinstripe napkins and coasters.
