He'll offer to carry your suitcase, so lighten his load with pieces that take you from beach to bar.

Do you love the nightlife? Got to boogie? Cuba could be the honeymoon destination of your dreams. Go for the white-sand beaches, national parks laced with hiking trails, history-rich museums and coffee and tobacco plantations by day, then order a rum cocktail and dance the night away in one of Havana's legendary salsa clubs. Stay in a swanky resort, or quiz the locals when you arrive – there are 'casas particulares' (government-registered private homes) scattered throughout the country, for a truly authentic experience. INSIDER TIP Don't buy cigars on the street. If you want to try a quality Cuban cigar, buy one from a government-endorsed store. These are identifiable by their air conditioning, which isn't just to keep you cool, it also helps preserve the tobacco. W

A TALE OF TWO ISLANDS

Why choose one honeymoon destination when you could visit two side by side?

RAROTONGA AND AITUTAKI

No trip to Raro is complete without a visit to Aitutaki, a 45-minute flight away. Play spot-the-sea-turtle in the lagoon, or cruise to one of the smaller islets for a private picnic.

VICTORIA AND TASMANIA, AUSTRALIA

Shop Melbourne's laneways and sip wine in the Yarra Valley, then pop down to Tassie. Hire a car and connect the dots between the main centres.

SOUTH ISLAND AND STEWART ISLAND

Explore Queenstown and Fiordland before travelling by air or sea to Stewart Island, where you can tramp, kayak, dive and more on this lesser-known beauty.

HAWAII AND LANAI

It's not far from glam Honolulu, yet Lanai is free from traffic lights and full of off-the-beaten-track treasures like the Garden of the Gods, a rock garden reached only by bike or 4WD.

GREEK ISLANDS

Two islands? Fuggeddaboutit! Head to Greece where there are thousands to discover, all accessible by ferry and surrounded by the azure waters of the Mediterranean Sea.
