The background of the slide is a reproduction of the painting 'The Card Players' by Paul Cézanne. It depicts two men in a dimly lit interior, seated at a table. The man on the left wears a dark top hat and a dark jacket, smoking a pipe. The man on the right wears a light-colored hat and a light-colored jacket, looking down at a card in his hand. The table is covered with a red cloth. The painting is characterized by its use of color and brushwork, with a focus on the figures and the table.
