Green Gifts for Guys

The holiday season is upon us and finding that perfect green gift for your dad, husband, brother, or significant other doesn't have to be a daunting task. Ecotopia offers green gifts for guys that are not only unique, stylish and cool, they're also eco-friendly, so shop with us and ease your conscience.

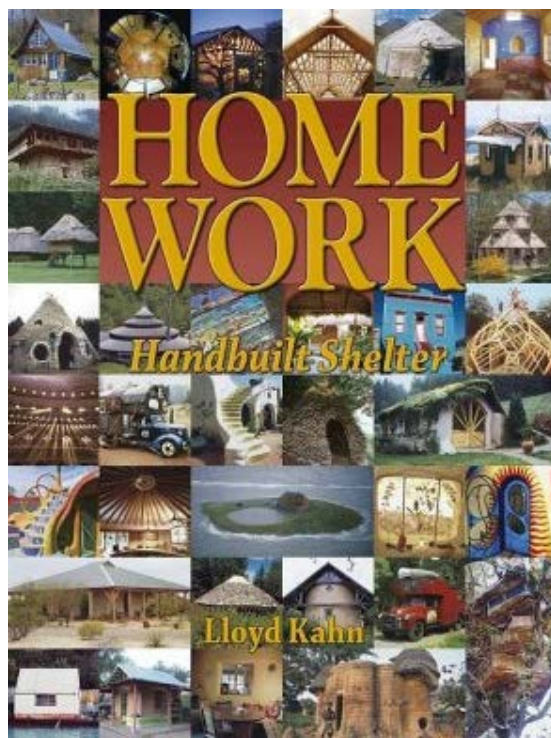

Whether you want to go snowboarding, hike, camp, live off the grid or keep cool during a hot yoga session, you'll find these eco-friendly products to be the perfect green gift for your guy. There is something here for any discerning man in your life. These green gifts are in stock and ready for the next eco-adventure, take a look!

Perfect for those mild winter snowboard sessions, the Hemp HoodLamb Tech 4-20 jacket is designed to keep you warm and comfortable no matter what you do. The water and wind-resistant outer shell is made from 55% Hemp/45% Organic cotton with an ultra-comfortable vegan-friendly fur lining made of Hemp Satifur (20% Hemp, 80% Acrylic). What's really cool about the HoodLamb Tech 4-20, besides the ultra-comfort design, are the secret stash pockets. That's right, hidden inside the fake fur lining are secret pockets ready to carry all your necessary gadgets; there is even a patented rolling paper dispenser so when you reach the top of the mountain you can roll one up! Easily access your cell phone via the quick draw phone pocket. Listen to your music device and attach speakers using the loops in the neck, it's all within an arm's reach. Keep your hands warm thanks to the fake fur-lined hand warmer pockets. Safely carry snacks, gadgets and other devices via the magnetic front and chest pockets. This multi-functional and stylish Hemp HoodLamb 4-20 jacket is ready to hit the slopes or the street!

You won't get left in the dark thanks to the Goal Zero Torch Crank Flashlight. The Goal Zero Torch Crank Flashlight features both floodlight and flashlight options so it's well suited to handle any environment and situation. Bright eco-friendly LED technology lights the way while a simple hand crank can generate power to the rechargeable batteries. And if you can't use your hands, the built-in, flip-out solar panel will also charge the flashlight! Every home, campsite or automobile should have a Goal Zero Torch Solar Crank Flashlight.

Build your own shelter! If you've got a guy in your life that likes to build things or fantasizes about living off the grid then the Home Work book is an essential read. The Home Work book illustrates imaginative ways to put a roof over one's head with over 1,000 photos and 300 line drawings with stories of real people building and living in their own homes. A must book for the soulful, independent lifestyle man in your life.

Hot yoga anyone? Don't worry, you can still cool off thanks to the versatile Ecotopia + Klean Kanteen Wide Insulated Brushed Stainless 20 oz. Double-walled vacuum insulation keeps contents at stable temperatures, up to 6 hours for hot stuff and more than 24 hours for iced drinks (ideal for that hot yoga session!), and of course great for your hot drinks warm all day. Made from BPA-free, food-grade, 18/8 stainless steel, the Klean Kanteen not only works and looks great, it's also earth-friendly! Its all-stainless interior and no liner means no lingering flavors so feel free to drink your coffee in the morning and your smoothie for lunch. The extra-wide mouth (2.125") makes it a breeze to swallow a few gulps of your favorite beverage or pour some cold or hot water over your head after a hard day of construction building or snowboarding! Say goodbye to plastic, the Klean Kanteen is reusable and recyclable!
