

RECOMMENDATION LETTER FOR LINDSAY HEIZMAN

To Whom It May Concern:

My name is Barry Katz and I have worked in the entertainment business for over 25 years—in Boston, New York, and in Los Angeles...in the fields of talent management, podcasting, and film/tv/cd/dvd/web production. In regards to recommending Lindsay Heizman, I assure you that I would not be recommending her to you if I didn't feel that she was worthy of working with you to accomplish all of your goals in the future. She comes from a family that has great traditional, solid values, which has promoted a sense of self-worth, integrity, and respect that I have rarely seen in any employee or person in all of the years I have been in business. Throughout her time working for me, she has demonstrated an ability to be one of the best coordinators, producers, and creative minds that I have ever worked with.

For as long as I've known Lindsay, I have witnessed a creative spark in her like no other—a true go getter who was producing television and films while she was working with me—which I supported—and she still was extraordinary in the office. While we worked together, she always worked tirelessly to expand her horizons by constantly doing hours of research and asking questions about successful projects, while always taking the initiative in a big way. Being a part of your company and organization would definitely be a symbiotic relationship and a fruitful step in her blossoming career.

In my opinion, Lindsay merits working with you because she is one of the most trusted individuals and is the kind of person that personifies the highest level of commitment to excellence. If that isn't enough, she is brilliant and dedicated--a person who covers every detail and every responsibility in a manner that makes it all look effortless. Her communication skills are superior and her relationships with her fellow employees, artists, and clients are unmatched by any other. Working for me, her job has had enormous responsibilities with hundreds of tasks to accomplish every day, yet she never loses her cool, always delivers, and takes care of every situation in the most efficient, stress free, and thoughtful way.

Therefore, I have no doubt that Lindsay will be to your company, what she has been to mine—invaluable, undeniable, and at the top of her class—I guarantee it with every fiber of my being. She is extraordinary in every way—both professionally and personally and will exceed all of your expectations.

Sincerely yours,

Barry Katz
