

Burial Bridge

Discovery

The alien archaeologist found us when the depths of the sifting sands subsided.
Hidden in the layers of evolving earth our buried bodies merged with silt.
We have languished longing for the sun's showering spirit to ignite our lost souls to inspire and restore faded glory.
We have lumbered lost beneath the ebb and tide of heavy ocean weight for far too many years.
I hope that earth's descendants are ready to receive our value.
We return from the ground and sea ancient hands of the forgotten reaching from murky graves to reclaim our cosmic place and embrace the promise of destiny.
