Getting into the Spirit... with some festive treats

The season of laughter, festively themed jumpers and over-indulgence is almost upon us, so to help you get into the right mood we've put together a hand-picked selection of special offers and seasonal goodies that we think you'll love as much as we do.

Think festive favourites, the emergence of non-alcoholic brands, warming whiskies and sweet treats, and getting through it all with healthy alternatives to hand!

What could possibly say Christmas more than sipping on a wonderfully rich and creamy tippie next to the warming glow of a log fire?

Don't forget that the festive season is the perfect time to add more premium spirits to your portfolio as your customers look to spoil friends and family alike. Tempt them with something new, exciting yet perfectly on trend this Christmas!

Cask Ales & Seasonally Inspired

It is no secret that cask ale has had a difficult time over the past few years, but it's fighting back! The skill required to produce cask ale and its small batch nature leads to fabulous experimentation which plays into the hands of those in the on trade.

There is an opportunity to target the adventurous beer enthusiast and tackle cask through a premium product offering. Gritchie Brewery owned by Guy Ritchie, is one of a growing band which blends old world traditions with new ingredients, helping to break stereotypes whilst still satisfying loyal cask ale drinkers.
