This spring many HERS alumnae and community members requested that we host a Next Stages, Next Steps Career Workshop on the West Coast. We listened to your suggestion and we are thrilled to invite you, your colleagues and friends who are exploring deanships, associate vice president/provost roles, and similar administrative or leadership roles to our next career workshop being held at Pomona College in Claremont, CA.

Working with consultants from Academic Search, a leading executive search firm in the higher education sector, and HERS alumnae currently serving in executive and senior roles, attendees will explore how to identify the right positions, prepare job search materials, learn how to navigate the process including off-site, virtual and on-campus interviews, and develop a new network of supporters. As part of our HERS Clare Boothe Luce \(CBL\) Program, we will also have advice for women in STEM fields.

For questions, please reply directly to this email or contact the HERS office at \(303\) 871-6866.

We hope to see you this fall!
