Starz held their Television Critics Association (TCA) presentation over the weekend and we got updates on our favorite series Vida. On hand for the morning panel were series creator Tanya Saracho and stars Mishel Prada, Melissa Barrera, Ser Anzoategui, and Chelsea Rendon to discuss what we can expect from season two.

A new cast member will be joining the staff at the families bar, Vida! The new bartender Nico, will be played by I Love Dick and The Deuce star Roberta Colindrez.

Not much else was discussed about the character but we're secretly hoping Eddie (Anzoategui) gets a new love interest.

Her heart may beat for Vidalia, but after a respectable time, it would be great to see her get back to dating. Life is for the living, am I right?

Saracho also announced that season two will have all Latina directors including herself, who will be making her directorial debut.

Members of the cast opened up about what it was like to be recognized in the streets for their work on the show.

"It's amazing to be part of a show that when people recognize you, they thank you," Barrera, who plays younger sister Lyn, told the TCA audience.
