

As the Northern Hemisphere enters the heart of winter, we may be accustomed to its brutal chill, but that doesn't mean we're embracing it. Now more than ever is the time to cozy up, rather than venture out – and these hotels offer an acceptable solution to human hibernation.

It's no secret – suite stays are, well, sweet. The extra room and the added luxury provide the most comfortable accommodations for many guests, but given the loose parameters of suites as the most spacious room at a property, it's become somewhat of an art to create not just a comfortable living space but a cozy retreat. These hotels embody the balance of cozy, using their extravagant space as a luxury playground of lavish bathtubs, grand fireplaces, and divine featherbeds.

IMMERSE IN PAMPERED LUXURY WITH DOM PÉRIGNON IN LIMA

No longer is a suite renowned for being the best room on property, but rather, it's entering an undefined international database for best suites to travel for. With this, suites have become somewhat of an experience, something the Country Club Lima Hotel in Peru can vouch for with its Dom Pérignon Suite. This package encourages guests to indulge in the Dom Pérignon lifestyle of pampered luxury. The experience includes a stay at Country Club's recently renovated Presidential Suite, including not one, but two, marble jacuzzis, and VIP services, including airport transfer, private in-room check-in, welcome caviar, butler service and a bottle of Dom Pérignon 2009 delivered to your door each night.

PRO TIP: Valid until June 2019, the Dom Pérignon suite not only includes complimentary VIP services, but also access to the club's private wine cellar; don't forget to encourage guests to take advantage of this added perk.

SNUGGLE UNDER SHEEPSKIN BLANKETS ON THE UK'S SOUTH COAST

The idyllic image of England's jagged cliffs soaring over white-capped waters are not for the fair-weathered folk. The recently opened Gara Rock changes this with their its suites, perfect for a romantic winter escape, with roll-top baths, wood-burning stoves and private terraces. Guests can plan to avoid welcome guests to the comforts of unwinding and enjoying all the room has to offer – like the granite, Japanese soaking tubs or a relaxing cast iron tea service in the suite's zen garden. Guests may come for the allure of Sonoma's wine, but stay for the Gaige's romantically authentic ode to Japanese serenity.

STAY WARM IN THE FRENCH ALPS IN YOUR PRIVATE TURKISH BATH

Nestled into Val Thorens, Hotel Pashmina Le Refuge's Prestige Suite XXL offers poster-worthy views of the snowy Alps. Whether guests spend their days on the slopes or choose refuge in front of the fireplace of the two-bedroom suite, the room feels like a secluded castle in the midst of a winter wonderland. There are two suites on property, and one offers a private Turkish bath; so wrap up, wind down, and enjoy the leisure that accompanies the chilly winter weather.

UNWIND UNDER A PERSONAL VIEWING OF THE NORTHERN LIGHTS IN LAPLAND

When guests check-in to the Skyview Suites at Javri Lodge, they can expect full immersion into the Finnish wilderness. With floor-to-ceiling windows, the pristine blankets of untouched snow by day, and dazzling light show by night, provide unparalleled scenery for a once-in-a-lifetime romantic escape.

PRO TIP: The property can only accommodate 26 guests, in 13 suites so advance booking is recommended. Occasionally the property offers specials to include nature experiences and roundtrip flights, per its most recent partnership with Red Savannah.

SETTLE-IN BY THE FIRE IN AUSTRIA

Fur throws, pillows and ottomans welcome guests in and warm them up after a day on the mountains. The Kristiania Lech property offers a range of suites from deluxe to superior suites, and a multi-bedroom penthouse. Its ski-town decor has guests feeling at home in their chalet-esque rooms, with modern fireplaces, the ideal spot for spending evenings, and watching morning snowfall.

CURL UP WITH A BOOK IN THE BAY WINDOW AT BLACK DIAMOND IN COLORADO

Groups seeking to take advantage of the ski season can look to one of THIRDDHOME's top rentals in Colorado as an alternative to multiple hotel rooms. The three-bedroom home is a ski-lover's dream, with its ski-in-ski-out location in the midst of Breckenridge resort town. Beautifully furnished, and accented with plush throws and fur pillows, it is the ultimate cozy hideaway, offering plenty of spaces to enjoy the benefits of traveling in groups, or to tuck into a nook with a good read and cup of cocoa. ☕ the chill and get comfortable with the property's sheepskin blankets and a cup of mulled wine while enjoying the postcard vistas from bed or the balcony.

EMBRACE A PRIVATE ARTIST HIDEAWAY IN ROME

Rome is already romantic. But imagine absorbing some of the city's key attractions from the privacy of your rooftop jacuzzi. At the Penthouse Suite these views include St. Peter's dome and Vatican City. Aside from soaking in the sites or just reveling in the luxury of their combined 4,000-square-foot Italian pied-à-terre, guests can appreciate their very own gallery from the Cavalieri's renowned artistic collections, like Warhol series artwork and Karl Lagerfeld sofas.

PRO TIP: If advisors book through the Rome Cavalieri or Waldorf Astoria website, a one-way airport transfer is included in the price. Additionally, look into the "suites experiences" packages which include free or discounted prices on activities exclusively offered to suite guests.

SOAK IN JAPANESE ZEN IN SONOMA'S GAIGE HOUSE + RYOKAN

California's wine country meets Japanese hospitality with nine Zen Suites dedicated to the customs of the traditional Japanese Inn, or Ryokan, lifestyle in Sonoma. Low beds, zōri slippers and yukata robes

