

Bulletin

GREAT NEWS FOR DEAF VIEWERS! PLUS, WE GET DOWN TO BUSINESS AND A NEW DRAMA RIDES INTO VIEW...

A VERY GOOD SIGN

There's a brand-new service for deaf viewers

coming to Sky...

FIND OUT
MORE ONLINE

For more info,
visit bslbt.co.uk
or [community
channel.org](http://community.channel.org)

This month there's great news for deaf Sky subscribers – the British Sign Language Broadcasting Trust (BSLBT) has teamed up with Community Channel (539) to boost the amount of sign-presented shows on TV. Starting on Wednesday 1, BSL Zone will air every Wednesday, Saturday and Sunday on Community Channel. Make sure you tune in for the first show – it's a brand-new magazine programme called Wicked presented by Lilli Resner and Nathan Rollinson (left). It looks at all aspects of life for members of the deaf community. BSLBT has also launched a facebook community where deaf people can exchange views. Check it out at facebook.com by searching BSLBT, or visit bslbt.co.uk.

TV TARDIS

What was on the box in years gone by...

10 YEARS AGO Tragic loss
We watched in shock and horror as news broke of the murder of Jill Dando, the much-loved presenter of Crimewatch.

20 YEARS AGO Bone idol!
In Lost Worlds: Vanished Lives, TV legend David Attenborough showed through the study of fossils how life evolved in Earth's deep and distant past.

40 YEARS AGO Scouse wit
Pauline Collins (above) starred in the first series of The Liver Birds. When she left, Nerys Hughes took her place in Carla Lane's sitcom and TV comedy gold ensued.

WORDS: BEHIVE HASSAN. PHOTOS: BBC PHOTO LIBRARY, ALAMY IMAGES, EXPOSURE, EYEVINE, PHOTOSHOT, REX FEATURES

→ IN THE PIPELINE

Look what's coming your way...

Coming to Bravo in June is Sons of Anarchy – a tough new US drama about a gang of motorbike-riding outlaws. It features a host of familiar faces including Ron Perlman (Hellboy), Drea de Matteo (The Sopranos) and Katey Sagal, below (Married with Children). We've seen the first episode – it's packed with the kind of strong characters you'd expect from the producer of The Shield. This is drama to get revved up for...

STOP PRESS...

Between now and the end of 2012, the traditional analogue TV signal is being phased out in the UK. But as a Sky subscriber you don't need to worry about this, as you are already digital. If you do have any queries, go to sky.com/digitalswitchover, where you'll find info on the switchover.

HIDDEN GEM: CNBC

What is it? CNBC (505)

is a news channel focusing on the latest business information and market analysis.

Who is it for? Anyone who's concerned about the credit crunch, stressed about savings or having sleepless nights about stocks and shares. What's on? Worldwide Exchange (weekdays, 9am) has presenters in London, New York and Singapore to bring you up-to-the-minute worldwide business news from the markets around the globe. Strictly Money (weekdays, 11am), presented by Ross Westgate and Clare Gamett, focuses on the UK economy and commerce. And in The Leaders (Thursdays, 11.30pm) Simon Hobbs interviews the top movers and shakers in business.

Watch out for... It's not all about money – love celebs? Tune in to The Tonight Show with Jay Leno and see a host of A-listers every weeknight at 11pm.