FESTIVAL

ALIYA MODI, INTERIOR AND FASHION DESIGNER

Destination: Coachella Valley Music & Arts Festival, California

Why: To dance in the sunset, listening to deep house music, take photos in the amazing art installations, ride on the Ferris wheel after the sun sets, eat at the vegan food trucks, and lay on the grass surrounded by great friends.

Luggage: Rimowa pieces are easy to push around and look clean and light.

Never leaves home without...

A tracksuit, an LBD, sticky tape, safety pins.

Packing secrets: Clothes that crease should be packed in dry cleaner plastic. Everything else goes into Muji garment bags to make unpacking painless. Also, I always pack pre-styled outfits so I can arrive and be out the door in 20 minutes.

Luggage: Longchamp

Never leaves home without...

A book, Jurlique rosewater facial mist and a cashmere scarf for the plane.

Packing secrets: Rolling clothes prevents wrinkles, and styling outfit options makes for an organised break.>
