

Street style in Kyiv: Guests of Mercedes-Benz Kiev Fashion Days

By Maria Romanenko. Published Feb. 3. Updated Feb. 3 at 6:29 pm

Here are some of the trendy guests of Mercedes-Benz Kiev Fashion Days that the Kyiv Post picked this week.

Photo by Anastasia Vlasova

Fashion events are known to attract some of the most stylish people in town, so no wonder Mercedes-Benz Kiev Fashion Days boasts such sightly guests, with each carrying their own vibe and style. Sparkly skirts, distressed denim, leather and sporty chic – you name it!

Mariana, partner of Ukrainian shoe brand:

I try to combine luxury and high-street brands, so that I can feel comfortable while attending meetings and parties.

Ira, logistics student:

I am very interested in fashion and try to attend different fashion shows. I also like traveling and looking at what people wear in other countries.

Lina Burduk, director and choreographer:

My style is extravagant.

Yuriy Revzin, model:

I think I have an individual style and I style my items the way I see them. A little bit of London and Italy, I would say. And a bit of France.

Serena, Vogue Italia:

My style is vintage.

Tetiana, photographer (L) and Anastasia Veligura, stylist at Tago:

Tetiana: I'm wearing a silk maxi-dress, I guess you can call this street style. I would say it's a young and comfortable style.
Anastasia: Bad girl.