

GADGETS + GIZMOS

These Toys Are Every Techie's Dream

> Technology is everywhere. It's a part of our morning routines, our daily commutes, our workdays and our days off. It's a part of how we cook, how we clean and how we keep ourselves entertained. Let's face it, to deny technology would be to deny yourself of a lot of today's conveniences—but for some, the tech world has lost its luster. Don't worry though; these eight products may sound like they're just for kicks and gigabytes, but we think your love for gadgets and gizmos is about to feel fully charged.
