BOOZE AND BILLIARDS

→ When I'm not at Landers Vintage or the Liquor Bar, you can find me and friends at the Marine Room in Laguna Beach, sipping on old fashioned and playing pool. Luisa runs the show down there and is rad!

WORTH THE TRAFFIC

→ Take a trip up to LA to visit American Rag on La Brea. Their buyers always seem to pick the right assortment of clothes by trend and time of year. A while back they added a cafe, and it changed the whole experience from an hour or so of browsing into a half-day affair when you add in time for lunch and wine!

ECLECTIC FINDS

→ Sea Hive is an antique mall in Oceanside that features over 100 independent collectors with their own little shops that have an eclectic mix of vintage clothing and antique furniture. They have a small coffee shop and even host events with bands and DJs now and then.

DAY DREAMIN'

→ Daydream Surf Shop is run by Becca and Kyle—both the most welcoming and nicest people. They have a board program that allows surfers to test and experience new shapes and lengths. Check out their custom wetsuits, amazing coffee shop and curated selection of vintage clothing.

WILD WILD WEST

→ Ransack is focused on Western and feels like the Wild West as you enter the store. Their merchandise is picked with this inspiration in mind, so it should come as no surprise that I found my championship bull riding belt buckle there. ■

OF MY FAVORITE VINTAGE FINDS

1. Vintage tux
2. Fringe leather moto jacket
3. Pair of ostrich skin cowboy boots

AN AMAZING ASSORTMENT

Landers Vintage store owner and operator, Kim Owen, aims to offer a curated and unique assortment of goods, focusing largely on Americana, western, industrial workwear and motorcycle gear inspiration—along with mixing in seasonal vintage finds.
