Here are the seven worst things that happen at nearly every wedding – prepare for these big day moments to go wrong (and not matter at all!).

1. Illness

Whether it's you, your other half or any member of your bridal party, someone will get struck down with a nasty cough/cold (that will almost certainly erupt during the 'lawful impediment' bit).

2. Children behaving badly

It seemed like a such a good idea for you to ask your adorable little niece to sprinkle rose petals down the aisle, but now she's standing at the door of the church, screaming at the top of her lungs and shredding her flower crown into little pieces – not quite what you had in mind.

3. Typo on the invitation

It doesn't matter how many times you proof-read those bad boys, they'll be something wrong on the invite – just make sure it’s not the postcode that all your guests will be popping in their Sat Navs – eek!

4. Too much to drink

To some a wedding is little more than an eight-hour drinking session (we know, how dare they!) so don’t be surprised if some of your guests get a little on the merry side. Prepare for lots of sweaty bear hugs with beer being slopped down your back.

HOW TO DEAL WITH TRICKY WEDDING GUESTS

5. Lateness

At least one of your guests will come strolling into your big day, mid-ceremony and mutter something about the traffic. “No one cares Uncle Jeff – just sit down already!”

6. Weather worries

Wishing for sunshine? You can almost guarantee that the the Great British weather has other plans - get ready for a great gust of wind to carry your veil far off into your venue’s grounds during your photos.

THE WORST WEDDING GUESTS YOU FIND AT EVERY BIG DAY

7. Car trouble

Rented a vintage car to take you from your ceremony to your reception? Or maybe an awesome double decker bus to take all your guests? There’s a high probability you’ll end up stood on the side of the A34 and eventually arrive at your party in a VW Golf.
