VEGGIE COCKTAILS ARE A TASTY COMPROMISE

Fibrous salads and alcoholic drinks might seem like an unlikely pair, but they're a good way to stick to your healthy resolutions. Here, a few plant-based drinks that go beyond the Bloody Mary

I Don't Carrot All

Bitter & Twisted Cocktail Parlour
Phoenix

A charismatic jolt of ginger, lime and coconut cream complement carrot juice in a silky Żubrówka vodka highball whose bright-colored garnish of slivered crudités could double as a salad course.

Salad Imposter

Dragonfly
Hong Kong

Parmesan-infused Gin Mare is a salty, savory backbone for plum tomatoes and fresh basil in this salad-lover's coupe glass, topped with peach vinaigrette and seasoned mozzarella.

Garden Variety

Botanist Bar
Vancouver

The natural sweetness of red peppers shines alongside yellow chartreuse, cachaça, lime and a mineral dose of saline meant to evoke sunny days of playing outdoors.
