

EVERYTHING OUR EDITORS ARE BUZZING ABOUT THIS MONTH

what we love

ROCK SOLID

This recyclable paper is made from stone rather than trees, making it water-resistant and reusable. TO BUY: Stone Wrapping Paper, $10 per roll; papersource.com.

ELF DUTY IS EASIER WITH THE
RIGHT GIFT WRAP SUPPLIES.

By Leslie Corona

Photograph by Ted + Chelsea Cavanaugh

This shipping material is recyclable; just remove all labels first.

1 ALL THE STRINGS

With two dozen rolls of colored twine in this set, you'll have plenty left for gifts throughout the year.
TO BUY: Jute Twine Pack, $38; shopterrain.com.

5 NO-FAIL MAILER

Cut this patterned, padded material to fit even the most oddly shaped gift. Seal it without tape.
TO BUY: Scotch Flex & Seal Shipping Roll, $10 for 10 ft.; staples.com.

2 MINI MEMOS

This booklet includes 75 tiny note cards that can be folded up and used as tags.
TO BUY: Little Letters of Good Cheer by Lea Redmond, $10; chroniclebooks.com.

6 DOUBLE UP

Wrap a present in a hand-dyed Japanese scarf to deliver a gift within a gift.
TO BUY: Hand-Dyed Tenugui, $32 each; bestmadeco.com.

3 RULE IT OUT

No need for scissors—just measure your paper and pull it along the edge of this tool for a clean, straight cut.
TO BUY: WrapMaster Wrapping Paper Cutter, $16; containerstore.com.

7 STICK TO IT

Layer on extra cheer with this set of seasonal decorative tape rolls.
TO BUY: Holiday Paper Tape, $13 for 3; riflepaperco.com.

4 SWEET SHEETS

The scalloped borders of this festive tissue paper will elevate any gift bag.
TO BUY: Sugar Paper for Target Red Scallop Gift Tissue, $4 for 25; target.com.

8 SEND A MESSAGE

Print recipients' names or a greeting on ribbon with this next-level label maker.
TO BUY: Brother P-touch Embellish, $60; joann.com.

LITTLE LETTERS AND LABEL MAKER: BRIAN HENN; STYLING BY MAI TRAN; PRODUCT IMAGES COURTESY OF MANUFACTURERS