

home.

GET YOUR LIFE IN ORDER

White trim, furniture, and accessories brighten up the deep-hued walls.

TRENDING going dark When it comes to the baby's room, we tend to walk toward the light—pastel paints are the standard in nursery décor. But if you're itching for a different style, you're in luck. Deep shades of blue, gray, and even black are gaining popularity and for good reasons. Case in point: This cozy room styled for kids' clothing line Jacadi Paris that is sophisticated enough to grow with your baby. Plus, those fingerprint smudges will be easier to hide!