Hey there amazing customer,

We apologize for sending too many emails; we just don't want you to miss out on any of our one time deals. We know that subscribing and unsubscribing can be a little bit of a pain though. Usernames, passwords, confirmations, etc. That's a lot of work..., on our end too.

Why not put yourself on our monthly subscriber list? Instead of 365 emails, you'll only get 12 tailored ones, and you won't need to re-register every month or so.

Does that sound more manageable? Click here to add yourself to our monthly subscriber list. We will only send you exactly what you want to see when you want to see it. That's a promise.

Thank you for helping to save our email management some time!

Sincerely,
The Daily Deals People
