Building a Partnership with Mexico

• U.S.-Mexico ties touch more U.S. lives daily than any other country via trade, border connections, tourism, and family ties as well as, sadly, illicit flows. The same is true for Mexico.
• An estimated 35 million U.S. citizens are of Mexican heritage.
• The shared 1990-mile border (3,201 km) creates overlapping security, economic and environmental interests.
• In recent years, government-to-government collaboration has been unprecedented. Security-related cooperation has grown immensely.

U.S.-Mexico border apprehensions increased in 2019

- 2018 was the year with the most apprehensions since 2012.
- In 2018, there were nearly 467,000 apprehensions at the U.S.-Mexico border.
- In 2019, the number of migrant families crossing the southwest border has broken records - unauthorized entries nearly doubling January 2018 numbers.
- More than 76,000 unauthorized migrants crossed in February.

Addressing Central American Migration

The US and Mexico enhanced cooperation in response to the 2014 surge of child and family migrants, including work at Mexico’s southern border against smuggling of people & drugs.

In June 2017, the US and Mexico hosted a Conference on Prosperity and Security in Central America in Miami. Commitments include:

• U.S. FY 2018 budget request for $460 million for the Northern Triangle (NT).
• Create a migration observatory to study and share information on regional migration flows.
• Improved cooperation to combat transnational criminal organizations.
• $53 million from Mexico for three NT infrastructure projects.

Mexico’s Senate condemned U.S. policies in June 2018 and called the government to end security and immigration cooperation.

In December, the US and Mexico announced a new strategy to be implemented in 2019.

- Necessary tools: physical barriers, technology, patrolling, eradication, enhanced law enforcement cooperation, anti-addiction programs.

- In 2018, AMLO ordered a review of Mexican policies & cooperation with the U.S.

Perceptions of Bilateral Relations and NAFTA
Americans’ and Mexicans’ Perceptions of each other (per cent favorable)

- Mexico reversed its perception of the United States since AMLO’s election.
- In 2019 polling, a majority in Mexico (56%) had a favorable view of the United States; while 58% of Americans had positive views of Mexico.
- Mexicans now view bilateral relation as stable.

US Opinion:
Is NAFTA/USMCA Good for the US Economy?

Overall, Is NAFTA Good for the US Economy? (% Good)

Trade Negotiations
NAFTA/USMCA
From NAFTA to USMCA

- The USMCA (United States-Mexico-Canada Agreement), or T-MEC in Mexico, is replacing the 1993 North American Free Trade Agreement trade or NAFTA.
- President Trump, Mexican President Pena Nieto and Canadian Prime Minister Trudeau signed the new agreement on November 30, 2018 in Argentina during the G-20 summit.
- It now needs to pass legislatures in all three countries.
What’s at Stake?

$1.3 trillion of North American Trade

Nearly 14 million U.S. jobs & millions more in Mexico and Canada

$452 billion U.S. investment in NAFTA partners & their $388 billion in the U.S.

46,000 U.S. trucking jobs supported by cross-border trade; $137 billion in annual vehicle and parts exports to neighbors and the world.

$43 billion worth of food and ag goods exported to Mexico and Canada

$88 billion in U.S. services exports & $31.5 billion services trade surplus

Main elements of the USMCA (T-MEC)

• Rules of Origin for Vehicles
  - 75% of the value of a vehicle to be produced in the region (up from 62.5%).
  - 40%-45% percent of auto content produced by workers earning over $16 per hour.

• Dispute Settlement
  - Maintains NAFTA’s dispute-settlement provision over unfair trade practice allegations (Chapter 19) and state to state differences of treaty interpretation (Ch. 20), but limits investor dispute (ISDR) options to key sectors U.S.-Mexico investment, eliminates coverage for U.S.-Canada issues.

• Successfully Updated Treatment of IPR, Internet-related issues, Labor, Environment ...
  - Achieved or exceeded most of modernization goals sought, including stronger labor rights provisions, IPR protections, inclusion of electronic commerce and data issues, anti-corruption, among others.

• Sunset Clause:
  - 16-year lifetime for the agreement, with a review every six years and possible 16 year renewal.

• Dairy
  - Addressed some U.S. concerns over Canada’s dairy policies and restrictions.
Serious questions about the vehicle Rules of Origin

1. Will measuring wage rates and content in the supply chain be workable? How costly and accurate will it be? Who will enforce it?

2. How much will the new rules raise the prices of North American vehicles for U.S. consumers and for export?

3. Will manufacturers move production out of North America?

4. Will some manufacturers forgo the NAFTA benefit and pay a tariff instead?

5. Will the U.S. auto industry be less competitive?

6. Will the new rules create or destroy jobs?

7. A much bigger impact if Trump imposes higher “national security” tariffs.

Approval of USMCA

Mexico and Canada:
• No ratification problems expected, but want U.S. steel and aluminum tariffs lifted.

United States:
• Unclear when a Congressional vote might take place.
• Democrats pondering requests to strengthening enforcement in labor, environment, etc.
• On February 8th, U.S. administration submitted to Congress a relatively short list of laws that will need to be changed under USMCA.
• Trump has threatened withdrawal from NAFTA to force congressional approval.
Costs of Withdrawing from NAFTA

From 256,000 low skilled jobs lost up to 1.2 million jobs lost (3-5 years).\(^1\)

95,000 workers would have to relocate to other sectors (3-5 years).\(^1\)

GDP decline up to 0.64% ($120 billion).\(^1\)

Hard hit sectors: agriculture/livestock/food; motor vehicles; machinery; other manufactured services; transportation and logistics; textiles.\(^3\)

Investors see U.S. growth slowed and harm to specific sectors and equity markets.\(^2\)

Strategic dangers: reduced cooperation against drug trafficking and on migration; move back to "distant neighbors" with revived anti-Americanism.

AMLO’s Policy Proposals and Early Actions

Poverty:
- Increase minimum wage.
- Launch new youth jobs programs.
- Subsidize inputs for small farmers.
- Provide universal health coverage.

Corruption and Government Efficiency:
- Better supervision of public spending; increase penalties for using public money for personal gain.
- Cut public-officials salaries, perks and reduce staff.
- Name independent Anti-Corruption prosecutor; autonomy of the new “fiscal general.”
- Use plebiscites to consult with the people.

Trade:
- Finish and implement USMCA. Focus on expanding trade with others.

AMLO’s Policy Proposals and Early Actions

Economic Policy:
• Focus on developing Mexico’s internal market.
• Infrastructure (Ex. Yucatan and isthmus railways).
• Redirect government spending to social programs; won’t raise taxes or increase debt.
• Lower taxes in border cities with the U.S.

Energy:
• Strengthen energy independence.
• Strengthen the role of national oil company PEMEX and electricity authority, CFE.
• Postpone new oil exploration auctions for at least two years.
• Limit gasoline prices and decrease prices in several years.
• Build new refineries to meet that need.

Source: Wilson Center’s Mexico Institute, 2018
AMLO’s Policy Proposals and Early Actions

Education:
- Eliminate key parts of Education Reform.
- Launch new youth scholarships, universities.

Security: Multi-pronged strategy
- Eradicating corruption and achieving effective law enforcement.
- Promoting employment, education and social efforts, prioritizing youth.
- Respecting and enforcing human rights by police, soldiers and others.
- Promoting civic culture, family values and ethics.
- Reframing drug policies to include legalization and more addiction treatment.
- Promoting “demobilization” and “reinsertion” of individual involved in crime.
- Substantial prison reform.
- Creating a new Secretariat of Public Security and a militarized National Guard to deploy locally.

Source: Wilson Center’s Mexico Institute, 2018
AMLO’s Challenges

- Lack of experience governing, examples:
  - Shocks to the market by the Airport decision.
  - Gasoline shortages from decision to end pipeline theft.
  - Concerning messages about PEMEX & private companies.

- Having enough capable staff, resources and income to carry out reforms without increasing taxes.

- Developing policies & assuring good implementation, e.g. public security & anti-corruption.

- Meeting high popular expectations
AMLO’s Critics and Concerns

Backward-looking agenda: Bigger economic role for the State? Over-centralize power?

Fiscal Responsibility vs new Social Programs: Increase public investments, social programs and subsidies without tax and debt increases and while shrinking staff and cutting salaries?

Education: How to improve public education?

Energy: How to increase PEMEX production?

Corruption: Effective plan to institutionalize improvements?

Public Security: Can the plan reverse violence?

Leadership style: Good communicator but more authoritarian and populist?
AMLO’s Consultas/Plebiscites: Critics Concerned

- The 10 projects were all approved via a “consulta” in November 2018 (Tabasco Refineries, Isthmus of Tehuantepec, Plant Trees, Pension, Scholarships).
  - Only 925,000 people voted, less than 1% of Mexico’s population. All received more than 90% approval, except Maya Train (89.9%).

- First “Consulta”: cancelled Mexico City’s airport projects; only 1 million voted; markets negative.
  - Another important “consulta” on National Guard and whether AMLO should indict past corruption may be held in March 2019.
AMLO Remains Popular

Maintaining a Partnership with Mexico?
New U.S.-Mexico Migration Strategy

Migration is the most urgent area for U.S.-Mexican cooperation.

- Could have another incident, as when migrants rushed the border near Tijuana and tear gas was used by U.S.

Dealing with the Roots of the Problem in Central America

- On December 18, the Mexican and U.S. governments announced an ambitious strategy to address the root causes of Central American migration, taking up AMLO’s earlier offer.
- They propose to invest billions of dollars to encourage economic growth, job creation and private investment in the Northern Triangle (Guatemala, Honduras and El Salvador) and in southern Mexico.
- Agreed to senior level meetings for 2019 to implement these – missed the first one planned for January.

Serious Challenges at the common border:

- Still to be agreed is how cooperation at the northern border will work with those seeking asylum.
- The U.S. sought a formal agreement for asylum seekers to remain in Mexico. Those seeking asylum after crossing the border from Mexico would have to await a decision on their asylum claims inside Mexico.
- Significant burdens for Mexico and serious concerns about migrant’s welfare while waiting.
- Mexico has suspended issuing humanitarian visas for Central American migrants and border migrant shelters are full.
U.S.-Mexico Relations

Trade:
- Complete USMCA ratification; end steel and aluminum tariffs; begin implementation.
- Enhance facilitation of trade and travel.

Bilateral Security Cooperation:
- Avoid further deterioration in cooperation.
- Better manage together migration; integrate AMLO’s development ideas.
- Deepen support for Central America to address root causes of migration.
- Review/Renew cooperation against organized crime (attacking production, distribution, logistics, finance networks, arms smuggling, and addiction/demand) and support Mexico’s efforts to reduce crime and violence.
- Continue close cooperation against terrorism.

Improve Competitiveness:
- Identify and revive a bilateral and North American agenda to enhance economic competitiveness.
- Invest in programs, including workforce development and education, to further develop the complimentary nature of the two economies, to create jobs for the Fourth Industrial Revolution, and to outperform global competitors.

Rebuilding Confidence:
- Take steps to rebuild deteriorating trust, or risk becoming “Distant Neighbors” again.

The Automobile industry: Sourcing of U.S. Motor Vehicle Parts Imports 2017

- The North American light-and medium-duty motor vehicle is estimated to be worth USD 728 billion annually – representing 28 percent of the global market for new vehicles.

- In 2018, the U.S. produced over 11 million light vehicles, while 17.3 million were sold.

- In 2017, 48 percent of all vehicles sold in the U.S. were imported with 25 percent imported from Mexico (14%) and Canada (11%).

- Imports from Canada and Mexico support many U.S. jobs as the share of the Canadian-Mexican vehicle built content is greater than any other non-NAFTA country.

- According to CAR’s estimates the typical Mexican-assembled vehicle – sold in the U.S. – includes 20 and 30 percent U.S. and Canada content.

- In contrast, the average vehicle imported from outside the region has only 3.5 percent North American content.
