Dear Friend,

How long have you been trying to build a list? One month, one quarter...maybe even one year? Longer? What are you getting stuck on? Building the web site itself? Maybe its the squeeze page? Or maybe you have everything set up...but you just can't figure out how to drive the right traffic to your web site.

Look, I have been where you are. I remember when I first got started online, I only knew 2 things for sure: I had to build a list, and I had to drive traffic to a squeeze page to do it.

So I built a squeeze page. By hand. I did it the hard way, literally building it from scratch. By the way, it was an ugly squeeze page...only converted about 28% of the people who read that page. Now my squeeze pages convert at between 34% and 56%.

But I stuck with it...I sent it lots of traffic. A LOT of traffic...from a lot of different sources. Some worked. Some didn't.

Over the course of the last 3 1/2 years, I have been testing and tracking, tweaking and refining my squeeze pages, my traffic, and my list building efforts.

Now, I generate around 1000 new subscribers each and every month, like clockwork - who spend between $15k and $20k with me each month.

Honestly, when I first got started in August of 2006, those kinds of numbers were hopes...but that's all they were. However, as I have learned, step by step (the hard way, trial and error) EXACTLY what to do to build a large subscriber list, I have documented what I have done, and now know EXACTLY what to do to:

- 1) Drive massive traffic to my web pages
- 2) Convert that traffic into subscribers
- 3) Monetize that traffic

So what about you?

The very way I operate is to share with others, with you, what I have learned. And to make it easy, step-by-step easy, color-by-numbers easy, I have created a 6 week, 6 module complete list building course.

How long are you going to continue stumbling around in the dark, hoping you can figure this list building thing out on your own? How much money did you make last month? How long have you been trying to figure it out on your own? How much longer are you going to stumble around, hoping to luck into the right information? Or are you going to jump on the opportunity to discover exactly how this is done?

Here's the deal - I am not sure how long I am going to leave this sales page up. These are my secrets, my exact steps here. If I sell too many of these, your list building efforts might cut into mine. So I cannot let that happen. Also, I am in the process of creating a $5000 product - and these secrets will be a part of that product. If this sells too fast, I will have to pull it, as I don't want to ruin demand for my upcoming super-product. So if you want this, get it now - don't wait for it to disappear forever or for the price on the information to go up.

So how much is my Complete List Building Starter Course?

As I mentioned just now, I could sell the parts to this package for $2030. But that would be out of price range for most of you anyway (no offense - but unless you are making a few grand a month online, you really shouldn't be spending $2030). So instead, I am determined to make it affordable for everyone - I want you to build a list so you will want to learn more from me - things like how to monetize that list like crazy. But I cannot do that if you do not have a list. You cannot learn to make big money online without a list. So I want to make it affordable. So I have decided to let it go for a limited time for just ~~$99.7~~ $497.00 today. Yes, I might be out of my mind to let it go for a price like that but like I said, I might pull it or raise the price at any time, so my advice is: get this while I am out of my mind!
