

THE QUINTESSENTIAL ENGAGEMENT RING ACCORDING TO YOUR ZODIAC

By Avantika Bose

Ready to bend the knee but clueless about the perfect sparkle to armour yourself with?
Lucky for you, the answer may well lie in the stars.

The introspective and spiritual Piscean woman needs a ring that can allow her to escape reality for a fantasy world. A diamond ring with a vintage look is perfect for the Neptune dream weaver.

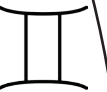

Confident, go-getter, with the love for a little jazz in her style, an Aries woman is adventurous in what she does. The ideal ring is trendy, elaborate, and also bold, like the colour red, matching her fiery personality.

A Taurus woman wants to feel romantic, spoiled, and enjoys luxury with detail. However, remember, nothing too 'in your face'. An oval rose pink diamond ring with a diamond halo setting is what she's looking for.

A free spirit who isn't shy to stand out in the crowd, the Aquarius woman never wears something that does represent her. A sapphire centre engagement ring is the right fit for her.

A social butterfly at heart, a Gemini wants nothing more than her engagement ring to be the talk of the town. Given her indecisive nature, a traditional diamond ring with a quirky and extravagant gold band is best.

A Capricorn woman cherishes sophistication and craftsmanship, and has great appreciation for family and tradition. Go for traditional, minimal engagement rings that are perfect for every day wear.

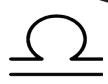

Sentimental and loyal, the Cancer woman is easy to please. Despite being a classicist, she has a soft corner for pearls. Pick an elegant and delicate looking pearl engagement ring and you've won her over.

A Sagittarius woman is adventurous, extremely positive, and always makes a statement with whatever she wears. A multi-stone engagement ring studded with amethyst and diamonds mirrors her playful and cheerful being.

A Scorpio woman is sensual and mysterious. Naturally, the only befitting choice would be a black diamond engagement ring. Not suited for the faint-hearted, the black gem has a deep and dramatic aura – ideal for the intense Scorpio woman.

Elegant and chic defines a Libra woman. If you're sealing the deal, something classy yet dazzling will go a long way. The perfect choice that represents her well – a solitaire diamond ring.

A Virgo woman pays attention to detail like no other. She's analytical and critical of small detail. Aiming to please this perfectionist? A beautiful yet practical diamond ring is what you should get your Virgo woman.

Glamorous, fearless, and bright – the Leo woman commands the spotlight wherever she goes. Nothing better than a vivid yellow diamond to light her up.
