

Combine the discipline and intelligence of jazz with the freedom and power of electronic music and you'll find your ears climaxing to the badass cut and paste sounds of Blactronica. The definitive neo electric-jazz band is composed of genius producers³: DJ Gone, founding member, bassist, and producer; DJ Quinn, alto saxophonist, keyboardist and producer; and Sunshine Brown, trumpeter, lyricist, and (you guessed it) producer. With their powers combined, Blactronica encompasses jazz, electronica and hip hop genres to create an ultramodern musical experience. For booking: jasmine.simmons@snj-group.com
