

Volunteer Program

We train:

- Parents
- Grandparents
- Friends

to teach four comprehensive art education lessons in their children's classrooms each year.

No teaching or art experience is required to participate in the volunteer program.

“They make it easy to go into school and do a lesson.”

“I have thought more seriously about becoming an art teacher.”

Art in the School

Our Mission

Art in the Schools is a nonprofit art education organization for children. Our mission is to enhance learning and creativity through visual arts.

About Us

We enrich education in New Mexico in a variety of ways:

- Teach parent and grandparent volunteers to teach comprehensive art education lessons in their children's classroom
- Provide a free after school art program at Title I elementary schools in Albuquerque
- Provide professional development for teachers where they learn how to us visual education to enhance and enrich the curriculum across the board.

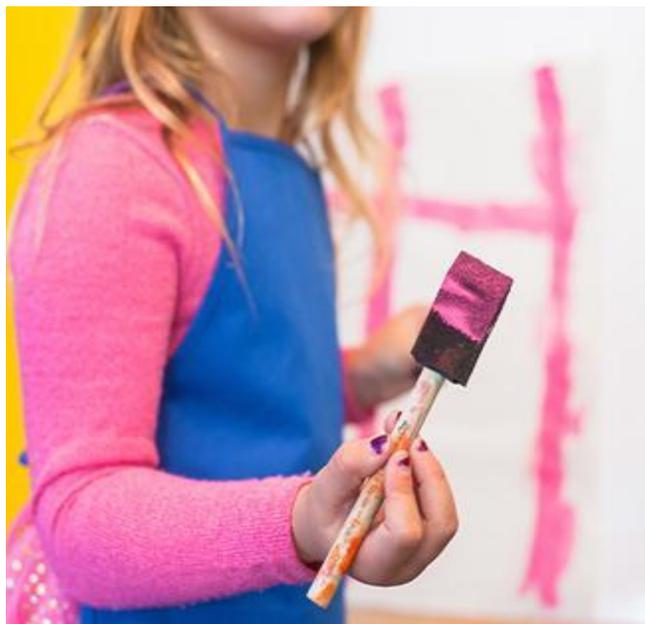

2018-2019 Year Program

Full STEAM Ahead: Fusing ART with Math and Science.

Studying art:

- Reveals the underlying identity of different cultures
- Magnifies children's creativity
- Allows students to apply knowledge from a reality-based perspective

Various media, scientific observation, and creativity is used to teach students to expand their knowledge of the world around them.

Open doors to learning through the visual arts.

How Volunteers Prepare

We provide a series of training workshops, which prepares volunteers to teach four lessons.

The volunteers receive comprehensive lesson guides, art images, and handouts with extension activity ideas.
