

Honda of Atlanta Website Page

In the market for a new Honda? Look no further than Honda of Atlanta in Duluth, GA. From Norcross to Marietta, Alpharetta and Sandy Springs, we have you covered on all the latest and greatest models. Drive home in a brand new 2019 HR-V crossover, featuring a comfortable, stylish, and adjustable interior, all with the thrill and peace of mind that comes with optional four-wheel drive. Likewise, our new Honda Fit and Honda Civic Si and Type R models are sure to appeal to the most adventurous customers. With sporty designs, aggressive power, and plenty of cargo space, your fast track to next weekend's getaway is easier than ever.

Seeking something for the family? We have you covered there as well. Choose from our line of classic staples like the Honda Odyssey, Honda Pilot, or Honda CR-V. With customizable options ranging from Honda CabinWatch, to an available rear entertainment system linked with Honda CabinTalk, your new Honda Minivan or SUV comes fully ready to keep the kids entertained long past that second and third road trip hour. Additionally, enhanced climate control options and comfortable seating for up to five and eight passengers guarantees a blissful ride, making your next vacation enjoyable from start to finish.

For our most tech-progressive customers, Honda of Atlanta also features an assortment of eco-friendly electric and hybrid vehicles. Choose from our line of 2019 Accord, Clarity, and Insight models, each packed with a stunning assortment of environmental upgrades. Tour your favorite city cleanly and efficiently with an estimated 47-49 Hwy/City MPG rating. Likewise, eco-conscious interiors made up of recycled ultrasuede provide a forward-thinking atmosphere. With thousands of plug-in stations across the country and the option to utilize gas, electric, or both for longer drives, our electric and hybrid vehicles provide the perfect blend of style, comfort, and compromise.

Local Marketing, Inc. Business Description

With clients ranging from automotive giants like Ford and Honda, to the smaller brick and mortar businesses of attorneys, roofers, and home-builders throughout the country, Local Marketing, Inc. prides itself on being a "one-stop shop for all your digital marketing needs." Utilizing a team of industry experts, LMi has quickly garnered a reputation as a leader in digital marketing optimization, founded on the philosophy that experienced marketing teams belong to more than just the largest national corporations.

As such, LMi provides each and every client, no matter their size, with a personal team of content developers and strategists. Content and SEO Specialists seek out and devise the best content for your business's campaign(s), while PHP Developers, IT Support Specialists, and Project Managers ensure your business's unique needs are fully met from every angle, every time. With a focus on results and return of investment, LMi navigates the noisy marketplace to help you and your business stand out, no matter the challenge.