Hey Joanna,

What are you doing to take action on your dreams?

The wonderful thing about personal growth and tapping into your true purpose is that you start to dream big. ...But how do you turn those dreams into reality?

I can tell you from personal experience, transforming an “idea” into a “career” takes a lot of inspiration and a lot of practical know-how.

Which is why I’m so excited to share that my friend Gabby Bernstein is now teaching a digital version of her Spirit Junkie Masterclass – meaning anyone can join, no matter where you are in the world.

What Gabby does is pretty magical. She guides you from A–Z: how to get clear on your purpose, overcome your doubts and fears, use marketing that really works, connect with your ideal clients, and how to build your earning capacity and make money in your field.

Gabby will be hosting a Live Webinar TONIGHT to talk all things Spirit Junkie and get your questions answered! You can click here to tune in at 4pm PT | 7pm ET.

No more holding back or playing small – now is your time to step into the life you're meant to live!

Come join us LIVE tonight.

Xo,

Crystal

P.S. If you haven't had a chance yet to read my exclusive interview with Gabby and learn how she's been an important inspiration in my life, you can check it out here. And for anyone who signs up for Gabby's Spirit Junkie Masterclass through my unique link, you'll get an exclusive, one-on-one Business Branding Style Strategy Session with me, my Capsule Clothing Checklist of wardrobe essentials + my Style Quick Start Guide.
